Code of Practice for the Pastoral Care of International Students:

The Hillary Outdoors Education Centres has agreed to observe and be bound by the Code of Practice for the Pastoral Care of International Students published by the Minister of Education. Copies of the code are available on request from this institution or from the New Zealand Ministry of Education website at http://www.nzqa.govt.nz/assets/generated\_pdfs/education-code-of-practice-7994.pdf

Student Complaints

Hillary Outdoors have internal grievance procedures if students have concerns about their treatment. If you are a student and you are not satisfied with the outcome of the organisation's formal complaint process, you can raise your concerns with iStudent Complaints. They can resolve contractual and financial disputes against your provider in New Zealand, and will direct any complaints about Code breaches to the New Zealand Qualifications Authority (NZQA). For more information see their website at <http://www.istudent.org.nz/>

Immigration:

Full details of visa and permit requirements, advice on rights to employment in New Zealand while studying, and reporting requirements are available from the new Zealand Immigration Service, and can be viewed on their website at <https://www.immigration.govt.nz/new-zealand-visas>

Eligibility for Health Services:

Most international students are not entitled to publicly funded health services while in New Zealand. If you receive medical treatment during your visit, you may be liable for the full cost of the treatment. Full details on entitlements to publicly funded health services are available through the Ministry of Health and can be viewed on their website at <http://www.health.govt.nz/new-zealand-health-system/eligibility-publicly-funded-health-services>

Accident Insurance:

The Accident Compensation Corporation provides accident insurance for all New Zealand citizens, residents and temporary visitors to New Zealand, but you may still be liable for all other medical related costs. Further information can be viewed on the ACC website at <http://www.acc.co.nz/making-a-claim/am-i-covered/index.htm>

Medical and Travel Insurance:

International students must have appropriate and current medical and travel insurance while studying in New Zealand. NB Students must provide evidence of appropriate and current medical and travel insurance. This insurance must cover the full length of time spent in New Zealand. An overseas Insurance Policy will only be accepted if it is accompanied with an English translation. Hillary Outdoors will keep a record of the Insurance Policy number and the type of cover provided.

Conditions of Acceptance:

If your application is accepted you will receive from Hillary Outdoors a letter offering a place on the course. You are then required to accept this offer by paying a minimum deposit of 10% of the course fee. This must be paid within 7 days of written confirmation of acceptance on the course to guarantee you a place on the course. The payments should be made in New Zealand dollars through a New Zealand registered bank or by bank draft.

You are then required to make visa applications, fees must be paid in full before student visas or permits are issued by NZ Immigration.

Refunds: The final date for withdrawal from the Certificate in Outdoor Adventure Skills and Leadership or the National Diploma in Outdoor Recreation (Instruction) courses for International Students is up until the end of the tenth day of the course where students are entitled to a refund of 75% of total fees paid.

Withdrawal from these courses after this withdrawal period does not result in any refund.

Course fees will be refunded in full, without deductions, only if you are refused a visa by New Zealand Immigration Authorities and if your cancellation is received at least four weeks before the commencement of the course.

If the information you give in your application regarding your age, outdoor skills and experience or English language ability has been falsified Hillary Outdoors reserves the right to terminate your place on the course without a refund.
